INTRODUCTION

Congratulations on completing the program. As part of your training you are required to keep a logbook of all practical on the job training and exposure you receive during the learning process.

You will now be assigned to a mentor who will oversee your off-site training, usually referred to as on-the-job training.

The mentor will assist and advise you on the practical aspects of the job, how to fit into the company, what is expected of you as an employee and as a future supervisor.

Responsibilities of the learner include:

- One hundred percent commitment to the learning process. Learners are encouraged to study any additional source of information relevant to this learning process.
- Doing all assignments contained in this workbook as well any tasks and assignments received from your mentor or supervisor to whom you have been assigned.
- Although the mentor is responsible to sign off all sections completed, it is the learner's responsibility to ensure that all paperwork is completed and handed in for filing on his/her record of learning. It should be clearly stated to learners that a 100% complete record of learning, as prescribed by this logbook, is their sole responsibility. Any document missing from the record may result in your not being declared competent.
- Discuss any problems that you may have with your mentor.

Instructions to the Mentor

Congratulations on your appointment as a mentor to the learner. This is a very responsible assignment because you have been tasked with the responsibility of rounding off the learner's practical exposure.

You must ensure that you are familiar with all aspects of the work covered in this logbook because you must keep a daily account of the learner's performance.

You are also required to report to the learnership coordinator skills development facilitator, or as agreed between yourself, the coordinator and the learner regarding the learner's progress. Your responsibilities as mentor are as follows:

- Study the logbook and acquaint yourself with its content and format
- Remember this logbook is the learner's full record of learning and workplace exposure. All activities which the learner participates in must be recorded, and all documents produced in relation to this learnership must form part of the record of learning
- Get all the learners together and explain its purpose to them and also what is required of them
- Remember the mentor is the creator of learning and exposure opportunities. You should therefore not confine the learner's exposure to this logbook alone
- Continuously guide them in doing the assignments and arranging the planned exposure with the relevant departments
- File all duplicate records of learning on a file for each learner
- Send all original records to the training provider at the end of end of each month. The Seta also requires that copies be held at the companies
- This logbook need not be followed chronologically, but please note that the learner is required to work through the entire logbook by the end of the learning period

Responsibilities of the Employer

- Creating an atmosphere conducive to learning
- Giving learners ample access to the working environment. Remember that learners should be productive employees to get practical exposure to all aspects of the transport operation as required by the learnership
- Ensure that learners, mentors and assessors attend all training required and arrange and pay travelling and accommodation costs
- Ensure availability of sufficient mentors and workplace assessors

Training Provider Responsibility

- Provide all practical learning material in electronic and/or hard copy, depending on the circumstances
- Provide training for mentors and workplace assessors if required and provide the learning material
- Visit employers to monitor progress and provide guidance and feedback.
- Provide an online and telephonic support system to all mentors and learners

CASE STUDY 1

Case Study: Planning and Preparing Activities and Routines in a Preschool Setting

Introduction: This case study focuses on planning and preparing activities and routines for a preschool setting based on the National Curriculum Framework. The preschool caters to children aged 3 to 5 years and aims to provide a comprehensive learning experience that aligns with child development, removes barriers to learning and development, incorporates scheduling strategies, follows the National Early Childhood Development Policy and Programme, respects the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and utilizes relevant learning resources and equipment.

Background: The preschool is located in a diverse community with children from different socio-economic backgrounds. The teaching staff consists of qualified early childhood educators who are well-versed in child development theories and have experience working with young children. The preschool has access to appropriate learning materials, equipment, and resources to facilitate effective teaching and learning.

Case Study Scenario: The preschool has decided to introduce a new theme-based learning approach to enhance the children's understanding of the world around them. The chosen theme is "Animals and their Habitats." The goal is to engage children in hands-on activities, foster their curiosity, promote social interaction, and develop their cognitive and physical skills.
